

Dan Vs. Season 2

Program description (general):

Meet Dan, a loveable misanthrope who, along with his reluctant sidekick Chris, haphazardly seeks revenge against the frustrations of modern life that – whether in reality or in his imagination – conspire against him.

Program description (listing):

Dan, a lovable curmudgeon, fights for the everyman. Avenging a new grudge in every episode, his misguided quest for justice leads him and his pals, Chris and Elise, into misadventures and catastrophes; Dan won't rest until he's settled the score—or comes close.

Character descriptions

Dan

Dan is our hero and lovable misanthrope. Outwardly he's extremely angry and bitter. Inside, he's easily wounded and insecure. What would be minor irritants to other people are to Dan unforgivable torments. He is unable to get over these slights as a normal person would. Instead, he interrupts his life (and the lives of others) until he is satisfied that whatever has wronged him has been given its comeuppance. He's very proactive in getting revenge. If someone, something, or someplace wrongs him, he'll never be able to let it go until he's settled the score in whatever pointless, pyrrhic, or overly dramatic fashion he can.

Chris

Dan's sometimes-reluctant sidekick, the Yin to Dan's Yang. Much more stable and good-natured than Dan, Chris is pretty content most of the time. But when Dan calls, Chris answers. Maybe it's a strange codependence, maybe it's that life with Dan is more exciting, but Chris drives Dan around, does most of his heavy lifting, and gets taken for granted all the time.

Elise

Chris's smart, pretty, no-nonsense wife. She loves Chris, tolerates Dan, and has a mysterious past and skill set. Most of the time she grudgingly puts up with the guys' ridiculous antics, though sometimes her goals happen to fall in line with Dan's, at which point it's all about getting the job done. She's very capable, sometimes in a scary way
