

BIO

René Auberjonois Voice of “McLeish” in “Pound Puppies”

@ReneAuberjonois

Tony Award[®] winning actor Rene Auberjonois stars as “McLeish,” the head dog catcher who runs Shelter 17, in “Pound Puppies” on Hub Network. “Pound Puppies” is executive produced by Bart Jennett, Chris Bartleman, Kirsten Newlands and Stephen Davis and is from Hasbro Studios.

Auberjonois’ feature film credits include “M*A*S*H,” in which he portrayed “Father John Patrick Mulcahy”; “The Princess Diaries”; “The Patriot”; “Batman Forever”; and “Inspector Gadget.” He also lent his voice to animated feature films, such as “The Little Mermaid,” “Tarzan & Jane,” and “An American Tale: Treasure of Manhattan Island.”

Auberjonois’ television work extends nearly five decades and includes starring roles as “Clayton Endicott III” on “Benson”; “Odo” on “Star Trek: Deep Space Nine”; and “Paul Lewiston” on “Boston Legal.” Auberjonois has also appeared on “The Jeffersons,” “The Bob Newhart Show,” “Charlie’s Angels,” “The Practice,” “Frasier,” “NCIS,” and “The Good Wife.”

Auberjonois’ voice work has been featured on “Archer,” “Avatar: The Last Airbender,” “Family Guy,” “The Smurfs,” “The Wild Thornberrys,” and “Rugrats.”

Auberjonois starred on Broadway in “A Cry of Players,” “King Lear,” and “Twelfth Night.” His other notable theatre credits include his Tony Award[®] winning role in “Coco,” as well as his Tony Award[®] nominated roles in “The Good Doctor,” “Big River” and “City of Angels.”

Press Contact: Dupe Bosu, (818) 531-3656, Dupe_Bosu@HubTV.com