Nick Purcha stars as “Watch,” an odd genius who holds a deep fascination about his town’s supposed curse and has fashioned his parents’ basement into a makeshift lab, in “Spooksville” on the Hub Network. “Spooksville” is based on the acclaimed book series by author Christopher Pike. The series is from Front Street Pictures, Springville Productions, and Jane Startz Productions and it is executive produced by Harvey Kahn (“R.L. Stine’s The Haunting Hour: The Series”) and Jane Startz (“Ella Enchanted”).

In 2011, Purcha began appearing in short films and independents through his studies with “The Young Actors Project,” including a starring role in the hit online feature “Wonderland High” and in the film “Thirteen.” That same year he booked the first of three different roles on the Daytime Emmy® Award-winning popular anthology series “R.L. Stine’s The Haunting Hour: The Series,” also on the Hub Network.

Growing up in Vancouver, British Columbia, Purcha has studied acting since he was 12-years-old with respected instructors Robert Randall and Dolores Drake, as well as at the acclaimed Young Vancouver Acting School (a division of the Vancouver Acting School).

Purcha is the second of three children and continues his studies as a high school junior in the Vancouver, British Columbia area.
