

BIO

Steve Bacic
“George Freeman” on “Spooksville”

@stevebacic

Steve Bacic stars as “George Freeman,” the 40-year-old father of “Adam” and new resident of Springville who still harbors hope that his missing wife may resurface, in “Spooksville” on the Hub Network. “Spooksville” is based on the acclaimed book series by author Christopher Pike. The series is from Front Street Pictures, Springville Productions, and Jane Startz Productions and it is executive produced by Harvey Kahn (“R.L. Stine’s The Haunting Hour: The Series”) and Jane Startz (“Ella Enchanted”).

Bacic has worked consistently in both Canada and the United States, with over a hundred credits and 20 years of industry work. His feature film roles include the lead role in “A Haunting at Silver Falls,” as well as appearances in “X2,” “The 6th Day,” and “John Tucker Must Die.”

Bacic has garnered international recognition with roles in the television series “NCIS,” “Big Love,” and “CSI: Miami.” Bacic has also appeared as a series regular on several Canadian television series, including “Andromeda,” “The Guard,” and “Crash & Burn.” Most recently he appeared in the pilot, “Rita,” for Bravo. Bacic’s breakout role was a guest star appearance on the hit television series, “21 Jump Street.” He also appeared in the television movie, “Profile for Murder.”

Born in Croatia and raised in Windsor, Ontario, Bacic holds a bachelor’s degree in kinesiology and a minor in math.

Bacic currently resides in North Vancouver, British Columbia.

Press Contact: Amy Maloney, (651) 249-7977, Amy_Maloney@HubTV.com