

URBAN SUBURBAN Host Bios

Sarah Daniels

Sarah Daniels has had a long and varied career in both media and real estate. After starting in radio, where she worked in promotions, news, and eventually as an afternoon drive time co-host, she moved on to television as one of the original co-hosts of the Global BC Morning News. Always interested in real estate, Sarah earned her license in 2003, and eventually left the morning news to pursue real estate full-time.

URBAN SUBURBAN has brought Daniels back to television with her brother and co-host, Philip DuMoulin. She also continues media appearances as a real estate expert. Daniels has written two books, including “Welcome Home: Insider Secrets to Buying or Selling Your Property.” She consults on real estate with several national magazines, and continues to write articles for many publications.

Daniels is currently a licensed realtor outside of Vancouver, Canada, in White Rock, British Columbia, with Bay Realty Ltd. Her expertise lies in suburban properties.

Philip DuMoulin

Philip DuMoulin completed the BCIT Marketing Real Estate program in 1990. However, his passion for events led him to work behind-the-scenes for 10 years as a promoter for some of British Columbia’s best-known sporting events. DuMoulin re-entered the residential real estate industry in 2003, and has been specializing in this area ever since. He has successfully renovated a number of multi-family buildings and presently owns several holding properties on Vancouver Island, British Columbia, and in Phoenix, Arizona.

DuMoulin is the current co-host of URBAN SUBURBAN with his sister, Sarah Daniels, as well as the Senior Vice President of Sales at Sotheby’s International Realty. DuMoulin is an expert in urban properties avid boater in his free time.
