VEHICLE VALUES ARE OF THE NAME OF THE GAME ON VELOCITY'S
WHAT'S MY CAR WORTH?

-- The Definitive Car Evaluation Show Debuts an All New Season Thursday, May 21 at 8 and 8:30 PM ET/PT--

(Silver Spring, Md.) – Classic car lovers may think their vehicles are priceless but to expert appraisers value comes down to dollars and sense. In an all new season of Velocity's WHAT'S MY CAR WORTH? hosts Keith Martin of Sports Car Market magazine and collector car expert Josh Nasar provide the critical, expert eyes owners need to properly determine the value of their car.

From Barrett-Jackson in Scottsdale, Ariz., to RM Auctions in Monterey, Calif., and Auctions America in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Keith and Josh crisscross the country test driving some of the world's rarest automobiles up for sale. After a taking the cars for a spin they perform a in-depth inspection: hoisting up the hood and looking beyond the chrome to get a sense of the car's condition. Next, they take a deep dive into each car's history to help owners determine an accurate value for their automobile before it races across the auction block. New episodes of WHAT'S MY CAR WORTH? world premiere Thursday, May 21 at 8 and 8:30 PM ET/PT only on Velocity.

This season Keith and Josh find powerful muscle cars, stylish European sports autos and more including these incredible cars among others:

- 1967 Ferrari 275 GTB/4 that was owned by the "King of Cool" – Steve McQueen
- Million-dollar Shelby 427 Cobra
- Legendary 1964 Ferrari 275 GTB/C Speciale
- 1969 Chevy Camaro SS
- Bugatti Veyron Grand Sport Vitesse
- Mustang Boss 302

Upcoming Episodes Include (All Times ET/PT):

“McQueen's Ferrari 275 GTB/4”
