TLC RENEWS BREAKOUT FRESHMAN SERIES AND SETS SUMMER SCHEDULE WITH RETURNING FAN FAVORITES

-- Recently Renewed Highly Rated Series Include: I AM SHAUNA RAE, DAVID & ANNIE:
AFTER THE 90 DAYS, LOREN & ALEXEI: AFTER THE 90 DAYS --

(Los Angeles, Calif.) — Capping off stellar first seasons, TLC, the #1 primetime cable network with women 25-54 for the third consecutive year to date, announced the renewals of three breakout freshman series: I AM SHAUNA RAE, DAVID & ANNIE: AFTER THE 90 DAYS and LOREN & ALEXEI: AFTER THE 90 DAYS. In their debut seasons earlier this year, all three averaged over a 1.0 P2+, in addition to ranking in the top 5 freshman series for women 18-34 so far this year. These highly rated new series left viewers wanting more and as a leader in family and relationship programming, TLC is delivering exciting sophomore seasons of their journeys.

Along with these renewals, TLC announced summer premiere dates for four returning, fan-favorite series. DR. PIMPLE POPPER pops into the unknown, tackling masses, inflamed lumps and whole-body rashes. Just when Randy Fenoli and the Kleinfeld team think they've seen it all, SAY YES TO THE DRESS celebrates its 15th anniversary of making brides' dreams come true with all-new brides unlike anything they've experienced before. MY BIG FAT FABULOUS LIFE follows Whitney and the Thore family as they handle Babs's recovery following a stroke. 7 LITTLE JOHNSTONS brings major life changes for all the children and one Johnston is moving in with a boyfriend.

Shauna is more determined than ever to live life like every other 22 year old. Standing 3 feet 10 inches tall, her growth was stunted after a childhood battle with brain cancer. This season she continues to struggle with the side effects of her condition and seeks out answers to her mounting medical questions. Shauna is in the driver's seat (literally!) on her journey for independence as she starts driving lessons. Will she be able to achieve the huge accomplishment of getting her license? Meanwhile, her parents Patty and Mark hunt for a new house that will have a separate living space for Shauna, however, Shauna and her younger sister, Rylee, are making their own plans to move out on their own...despite their parents' worry. In order for them to live independently, Shauna must first get a job. Of course, that's easier said than done as some careers may be out of her reach given her child-like stature. The family visits older sister Tara in Florida, and while they're looking forward to some fun in the sun, they know it may not be long before things get heated between Tara and Shauna. Through all of this, Shauna is still looking for love and explores new ways of dating, including meeting a man who also has pituitary dwarfism. Will sparks fly between these two kindred spirits? I AM SHAUNA RAE is produced by Figure 8 Films for TLC.

The hope is to immerse the kids in English and give them American experiences like BBQ and amusement parks. By the end of their trip, will the kids' language skills improve enough to ace their visa interview and come to America? DAVID & ANNIE: AFTER THE 90 DAYS is produced by Sharp Entertainment, a part of Sony Pictures Television, for TLC.

For those who have lost all hope for any chance at a normal life — Dr. Pimple Popper is here. Join the conversation using #DrPimplePopper. DR.
