PEOPLE MAGAZINE INVESTIGATES: CRIMES OF FASHION

New Series Premieres Monday, July 16 at 9/8c

The adage “if looks could kill” takes on entirely unique meaning in the new series PEOPLE MAGAZINE INVESTIGATES: CRIMES OF FASHION, the latest partnership series between ID and leading multimedia brand, PEOPLE. Each episode of CRIMES OF FASHION explores high-end fashion icons and their couture crimes that captured headlines. In three hour-long episodes, tales of depravity, obsession and family betrayal in the fashion world all have a common thread -- cold-blooded murder. PEOPLE journalists have exclusive access behind the “labels” you know, going beyond the catwalk to reveal that fashion can sometimes prove fatal.

- Assassination of Maurizio Gucci premieres Monday, July 16 at 9/8c

It's March 27, 1995 in Milan, Italy. Maurizio Gucci, grandson of Guccio Gucci and former head of the iconic fashion house, is strolling to his office with a renewed sense of optimism in his step. After years of turmoil in his life, Maurizio is looking towards new business ventures and has a new love in his life. Unbeknownst to him, a killer lies in wait. When the dust finally settles, the question isn't who wanted Maurizio dead – it's who didn't.

- Killing of Linda Sobek premieres Monday, July 23 at 9/8c

In November 16, 1995, 27-year-old Linda Sobek is living the Tinseltown life that few others can even dream of. She's blond, buxom, a former NFL cheerleader, and has nearly nine years of professional experience modeling. With an audition with a major television series later that day, she's well on her way to making it in an industry where few can. However, when she doesn't return from a modeling shoot in the Angeles National Forest, the troubling clues all point to a suspect and an industry with a dark history.

FINALES

PEOPLE MAGAZINE INVESTIGATES: CULTS

Season Finale Airs Monday, July 9 at 9/8c

PEOPLE MAGAZINE INVESTIGATES: CULTS explores how destructive and terrifying cults can be to cult members and their families. Each of the six one-hour episodes dives deep inside a twisted American cult, building to that pivotal moment when blind worship turns violent and even deadly. From Jonestown to the Army of God, PEOPLE reporters are on the front lines, revealing the untold stories of power-crazed cult leaders using mind control, sex, and violence to manipulate and dominate followers. Each episode follows PEOPLE's trusted journalists as they doggedly investigate the evolution of these cults, expose their bizarre and brutal day-to-day rituals, and speak first-hand to survivors who narrowly escaped lives of misery to put their cult nightmares finally behind them.

- The Nuwaubian Nation of Moors premieres Monday, July 9 at 9/8c
The followers of cult leader Dwight York come from all walks of life. Ruby joins the Nuwaubian Nation when looking for answers to life's big questions while Niki is brought in as a child. Both become disillusioned as they learn the truth about York.

REASONABLE DOUBT

New Episodes Premiere Wednesdays at 10/9c

In a justice system that's not always so just, families can be tormented by the question of guilt or innocence of their convicted loved ones. REASONABLE DOUBT returns with all-new episodes profiling the gut-wrenching process of re-exploring murder cases where the perpetrators convicted of the crime maintain their innocence. In the second season, retired homicide detective Chris Anderson teams with his new partner, criminal defense attorney Fatima Silva, to pore through evidence, interview witnesses and consult experts previously overlooked by police or barred by the court. At the end of each episode, the determined investigators evaluate their findings and either offer the convicted's family hope for an appeal, or clarity to accept the guilty verdict.

- The Truck Driver's Wife premieres Wednesday, July 11 at 10/9c

Perry Mikell admits he was a serial cheater incapable of monogamy, but he insists that doesn't mean he killed his wife in a seedy motel room. Now, Mikell's sister and fiancée have called in Chris Anderson and Fatima Silva to see if they got the wrong man.

- Loose Lips premieres Wednesday, July 18 at 10/9c

In February 1990, 18-year-old Craig White gets into a truck with his cousin Jesse Watkins and is never seen again. The case goes cold, but after 17 years, police suddenly arrest Jesse for Craig's murder. Chris and Fatima investigate.
