THE LOST WOMEN OF NXIVM

Two-Hour Special Premieres Sunday, December 8 at 9/8c

The rise and fall of Keith Raniere and the now defunct NXIVM cult is one of the most disturbing scandals of our age. What began as a purported self-help group spiraled into a dark, secretive world of illicit sex, money laundering, and exploitation all at the hands of founder Keith Raniere and his accomplices. Now, former NXIVM publicist turned investigative journalist Frank Parlato takes a deep dive to question if there is more to this sadistic story, investigating the tragic deaths and mysterious disappearances of four women who all had connections to NXIVM and Raniere himself. With exclusive access to members of Raniere's former inner circle, some speaking for the first time and others who remain anonymous for their safety, Parlato leads viewers through a two-hour investigation into the disappearance of Kristin Synder and the untimely deaths of Gina Hutchinson, Pamela Cafritz, and Barbara Jeske.

PREMIERES
