SPECIALS

JOE EXOTIC: TIGERS, LIES AND COVER-UP

Three-Hour Special Premiere Begins Sunday, September 27 at 9/8c and Concludes Monday, September 28 at 9/8c

In a matter of months, Joe Exotic and his sworn enemy, Carole Baskin, have become household names. Their saga played out for the world to see, but what has happened since the cameras stopped rolling? ID's definitive sequel, JOE EXOTIC: TIGERS, LIES AND COVER-UP, examines the biggest question in true crime today – what happened to Carole Baskin's husband, Don Lewis? This three-hour special takes a new look at the evidence surrounding Lewis's mysterious disappearance, helmed by an exclusive jailhouse interviews from the biggest character in the world: Joe Exotic himself. Retired homicide investigator Jim Rathmann leads the investigation to discover the truth, revealing new theories uncovered by private investigators, reliving Lewis's final days and demeanor with those closest to him, and unpacking evidence uncovered by criminal and legal experts. Punctuated throughout are interviews with those in Joe's inner circle, including husband, Dillon Passage and members of "Team Tiger," a group working to free Joe from jail. Beyond the controversial missing person investigation, this special also explores the criminal case against Joe Exotic, and all the factors that led him straight to prison. New evidence comes to light that begs the question: Was Joe Exotic the predator all along, or is he actually the prey?

JOE EXOTIC: BEFORE HE WAS KING

Special Premieres Monday, September 28 at 10/9c

JOE EXOTIC: BEFORE HE WAS KING examines the childhood traumas and dramatic events which shaped the mind of the man who called himself the "Tiger King." This comprehensive, one-hour special delivers vital information to put the entire sordid story in context and uncovers dark secrets about Joe's past. Using exclusive and never-before-seen interview footage of Joe Exotic, including personal photos and home movies, this special reveals the dark secrets that led to the colossal crash which has landed him in prison for decades. What sent Joe Exotic down the path of depravity, polygamy, live animal collecting and trading and ultimately, conspiracy to commit murder? With expert commentary from forensic psychologists and law enforcement experts as well as new interviews with his inner circle – including a prison interview from Joe’s second husband, Jeffrey Charles “JC” Hartpence – this special analyzes the evidence and presents a vivid portrait of his psychological descent into madness.
