SOMETHING BORROWED, SOMETHING NEW- Friday, February 8th

SOMETHING BORROWED, SOMETHING NEW follows a bride's journey to find the perfect wedding dress, but with a twist. They have to choose if they will walk down the aisle in a new designer gown or a fashionably reimagined heirloom. In each episode, hosted by designer Kelly Nishimoto and stylist Sam Saboura, the bride-to-be works with the experts to help her choose between two dress options. She has the opportunity to wear a special, previously worn gown (mother's hand me down, best friend's princess gown, etc.) that Kelly will rework to update for the time, venue and personality of the bride. The bride will also join Sam on a shopping trip as he takes her to the bridal salon to pick out a brand new stylish dress. Then, it's an emotional roller-coaster as the bride has to choose between a nostalgic one-of-a kind dress and a new and fashionable piece.

GYPSY SISTERS- Sunday, February 10th

GYPSY SISTERS follows four women in the outrageous Stanley family, first introduced in last spring's MY BIG FAT AMERICAN GYPSY WEDDING: wild child Mellie Stanley, best known for her stripping and violent temper, her meddling sister Nettie, cousin Kayla - a traditional Gypsy, and lovable sister-inlaw Laura, for a raucous look at life as Gypsies in the wilds of West Virginia.
