AHC FILMS

AHC FILMS launches in 2014 as a new outlet for independent non-fiction filmmakers seeking a television home for projects that recognize a wide range of American heroes through uplifting, engaging stories. AHC Films aims to showcase buzz-worthy documentaries; offering viewers a unique television experience through which they encounter inspirational and powerful stories of the men and women, who have shaped the world we live in today.

- CHOSIN Premieres Monday, May 26 at 9/8c As one of the early conflicts in the Korean War, the Battle of Chosin is known as one of the seminal skirmishes of the Marine Corps' proud history. The brutal combat lasted 17 days in subfreezing temperatures amongst rugged terrain, clashing 15,000 U.S. Marines with 67,000 Chinese troops. Breaking a 60-year silence from the surviving "Chosin Few," CHOSIN recounts one of the most savage, yet monumental battles in American history.
