DOCUMENTARY

ID FILMS: THE WOMAN WHO WASN'T THERE  TV-14

Ninety-Minute Documentary Premieres Tuesday, April 17 at 8 PM ET

Out of the ashes of the Twin Towers emerged a group of survivors. They had all been through hell and back, but one survivor in particular stood out as inspirational: Tania Head. Tania's devastating story of narrowly escaping death is one of true courage. But while she made it out alive from one building, her life was essentially taken away by the other. Her fiancé had perished in the North Tower. Tania's remarkable tale of recovery and loss catapulted her to being the face of the tragedy, and in 2004 she became president of the World Trade Center Survivors' Network. But there was one problem with Tania's story that wouldn't emerge until September 2007, when a New York Times article blew the lid off of her seemingly miraculous tale: absolutely none of it was true.
