DOCUMENTARY

ID FILMS: WHITEY BULGER: THE MAKING OF A MONSTER ** TV-14

One-Hour Documentary Premieres Monday, June 3 at 10 PM E/P

After 16 years on the FBI's 'Most Wanted' list, infamous Irish Mafia boss James "Whitey" Bulger was apprehended on June 22, 2011. As part of its ID FILMS strand, Investigation Discovery presents the definitive account of a fugitive crime boss believed to have killed at least 19 people, a calculating mastermind whose criminal empire extended across the country, and, unlike other upper echelon crime figures, an FBI informant who operated under the protection of the country's most powerful law enforcement agency for 20 years. Based on the book "Whitey: The Life of America's Most Notorious Mob Boss" and featuring interviews with some of Bulger's closest confidants, WHITEY BULGER: THE MAKING OF A MONSTER digs deep into the mind of a psychopath, exploring the roots of Bulger's insatiable need for power and control.

SPECIAL

HOUSE OF HORRORS: KIDNAPPED IN CLEVELAND TV-14

One-Hour Special Premieres Wednesday, June 5 at 8 PM E/P

HOUSE OF HORRORS: KIDNAPPED IN CLEVELAND tells the chilling story of how and why three young women were imprisoned in a madman's cellar in Cleveland, Ohio for more than a decade. This one-hour documentary delves into how one man succeeded in keeping Amanda Berry, Michelle Knight, and Georgina "Gina" DeJesus as captives for so long, and examines the long term psychological, emotional, and physical effects of the traumatic experience. Through new footage, news coverage, interviews with neighbors, family, expert psychologists, criminologists and previous kidnapping victims, Investigation Discovery reveals the terror on Seymour Avenue.

- To Have and to Kill Premieres Monday, June 3 at 9 PM ET Famous for its middle-of-the-road sensibilities, Topeka, Kan., is a hard-working, white collar city in America's heartland. But in 2002, an appalling crime would shock the mild-mannered community and pull them into a decade-long investigation. After a night of celebrating their recent engagement, Michael Sisco and Karen Harkness were gunned down while sleeping in their bed. Investigators would dig up family vendettas and scour the state for evidence to save it from the cold case files.
- Dressed To Kill Premieres Monday, June 10 at 10 PM E/P Greeley, Colo., is a high-country community rooted in conservative values. But in 2008, a homicide hit this God-fearing town harder than a stampede of runaway cattle. Aspiring model Angie Zapata was brutally beaten to death inside her apartment. The impact of this murder would echo far beyond the city's bucolic borders and expose a crime simmering in hate and intolerance. And when the shocking details of this crime finally emerged – it left an impression on this devout city no one would ever forget.
- Murder, Lies & Bondage Ties Premieres Monday, June 17 at 10 PM E/P Wellesley, Mass., is a stately suburban paradise on the outskirts of Boston. That is, until Halloween 1999, when homemaker May Greineder was found butchered in a public park. In light of two similar unsolved murders in the area, residents began to fear their upscale sanctuary had been breached by a serial killer. But police would soon pick up on the trail of something far more menacing, ultimately exposing a slew of secret misdeeds and a deadly cover-up beyond Wellesley's wildest nightmares.
