MOST INFAMOUS TV-14 (DSV)

All-New Series Premieres Wednesday, May 7 at 10/9c

The unfortunate truth of modern policing is that despite all the DNA tests, criminal profiles and surveillance technology, it's still extremely difficult to catch a killer. Random killers, who murder as a passion, can elude even the most highly trained and well-equipped of police forces and remain on the lam despite being at the center of a media frenzy. MOST INFAMOUS features some of history's most appalling criminals, revealing the truth behind their crimes and capture.

- Murder & Co Premieres Wednesday, May 7 at 10/9c When bodies of young men begin to turn up on southern California's freeways, police are puzzled. But a tip off leads to the arrest of 33-year-old sex offender William Bonin. Bonin's sadistic actions earn him the title "The Freeway Killer."
- My Mother's Basement Premieres Wednesday, May 14 at 10/9c When police pull over a truck with a dodgy license plate, they are shocked to find a rotting corpse of a young woman. What the driver, Joel Rifkin, reveals in custody stuns his interrogators.
Location: Long Island, New York
- Red Light Regular Premieres Wednesday, May 21 at 10/9c The bodies of two young women are found in the countryside and three more follow just days later. A man is in custody, but to put the "Suffolk Strangler" behind bars, a full force of forensic science will be needed. Location: Ipswich, England
- The Scorecard Killer Premieres Wednesday, May 28 at 10/9c When cops pull over a car weaving across a California highway, they find more than they bargained for. A dead body in the passenger seat and a list of victims in the trunk is enough to send the "Scorecard Killer," Randy Kraft, to death row.

DEAD OF NIGHT TV-14 (V)

Season 2 Premieres Wednesday, May 7 at 9/8c
