NEW SERIES & SEASONS

(P) Denotes: Premieres

WELCOME TO SWEETIE PIE'S

Season Premiere Saturday, November 21 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT)

On an all-new season, Miss Robbie and Tim are taking their soul food empire to the stars and fanfare of Los Angeles, where they are opening a fifth restaurant. Tim has brought an all-star team across the country to help bring Sweetie Pie's signature style and flavor to this big-time city, but not everyone will play nice. Living in the home of show business has also re-lit Miss Robbie's musical fire, and she is as determined as ever to get her new EP recorded and out to the people. And with Hollywood just down the street, you never know who may stop in to get their taste of that world famous Sweetie Pie's kitchen.

(P) Saturday, November 21 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Hooray for (North) Hollywood!

Miss Robbie and Tim are bringing Sweetie Pie's flavor to the West Coast, opening their first restaurant in Los Angeles. It's a race against the clock as the St. Louis staff speeds toward opening day to see if they can make it in a big city.

(P) Saturday, November 28 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: NoHo or NoGo?

Opening day hits hard for Sweetie Pie's NoHo when the lights literally go out, and Miss Robbie has had it with Tim's lack of follow-through. Meanwhile, tensions mount between Charles, Chloe and Danielle that could spell disaster for Tim's A-team.

RAISING WHITLEY

Season Premiere Saturday, November 21 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT)

"Raising Whitley" is a humorous, poignant docu-series following actress and comedienne Kym Whitley and her riotous collective of friends – whom she calls "The Village" – as they attempt to do something none of them have ever done before: raise a child...together. The Village bands together to help Kym bring up Joshua the best they know how, but sometimes it's hard to tell who is more mature – Joshua or the adults tasked with raising him. This season, Kym is ecstatic when her sitcom, "Young & Hungry," gets picked up for another season, but questions how she will balance important mommy time with Joshua and long work days. Kym's good friend, Mickey, offers to help out and moves in with Kym, but when weeks turn to months, Kym starts to wonder if her friend will ever leave. Kym's friends, "The Village," find themselves in a heated disagreement and Kym calls Judge Mablean to hold an intervention. Meanwhile, Wendell's good friend Omarosa ("The Apprentice"), brings in a love coach to help Wendell face his dating fears.

(P) Saturday, November 21 (10 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Whitley Intervention:

Part 1

Kym takes the “The Village” on a trip to Orlando to appear on a special edition of “Family Feud” with Steve Harvey, but an argument between her and Rodney leaves their appearance on the show in doubt.

(P) Saturday, November 28 (10 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Whitley Intervention: Part 2

Kym calls in her friend, Judge Mablean, to get “The Village” in order, only to find out that she may be part of the problem. While Kym prepares to host the NAACP Theatre Awards, she notices Joshua is starting to act out.

HOME MADE SIMPLE

Season Premiere Saturday, November 14 (9 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. ET/PT)

This Emmy-winning television series features fresh design ideas, delicious recipes and money and space saving solutions for deserving homeowners. “Home Made Simple” empowers viewers to take on simple do-it-yourself household projects with confidence. New host, Jeremiah Brent, along with his team of experts deliver stylish and smart designs, clever crafts and “why-didn’t-I-think-of-that?” ideas while continuing to celebrate truly inspiring homeowners. Each week culminates with an emotional room reveal packed with surprises in addition to a new inviting space for friends and family to enjoy.

(P) Saturday November 14 (9 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Jimenez Team Work Makes the Dream Work

It’s an over the top creative space transformation for two hard working supermoms who now have an amazing new space and duo desk to work side by side helping the homeless. New host Jeremiah Brent leads the team to the most scream-matic reveal all season.

(P) Saturday November 21 (9 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Wall Work in Progress to Work of Art

Be amazed by the wall-to-wall wonders created by the team, both inside and out, for a family who downsized to become homeowners. Host, Jeremiah Brent and designer Kenneth Wingard bring it back to life with living art and an all-time favorite creation.

(P) Saturday November 28 (9 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. ET/PT) Episode: Hamilton “Expecting”...A Bedroom Surprise

It’s a stunning hand crafted wood designed master suite for a newly pregnant mom who needs her sanctuary from a growing family and a husband who needs to stake his claim to the very same home his wife grew up in.

OPRAH’S MASTER CLASS

Sundays (8 p.m. – 9 p.m. ET/PT)

The acclaimed Emmy-nominated series "Oprah's Master Class," winner of NAACP and Gracie Awards this year, returns for its fifth season. Featuring unprecedented first-person insight into the brilliant minds of entertainers we love, respect and admire, "Oprah's Master Class" tells the stories you've never heard from the people you thought you knew best. Hand-picked by Oprah Winfrey for their unique impact on the world, true modern masters share the greatest lessons they've learned along the way, including their successes, failures, triumphs, disappointments and heartbreaks. From award-winning actors and musicians to groundbreaking icons, this all-new season will include multiple Emmy-winning host Ellen DeGeneres, film legend Robert Duvall, one of the biggest box office draws of all-time Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson and Grammy Living Legend Award winner Smokey Robinson. Other masters include Oscar-winning actor and musician Jeff Bridges, five-time Grammy Award winner and singer-songwriter James Taylor and Grammy Award-winning songstress and actress Patti LaBelle.

(P) Sunday, November 1 (8 p.m. – 9 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Smokey Robinson

Smokey Robinson was meant to make music. He penned his first hit at age five and founded legendary group The Miracles while still in high school, so it's hard to believe that as a child he thought being a professional singer was an impossible dream. Dozens of Top 40 hits later and over 4,000 songs to his credit, Robinson is the definition of a true entertainer. His powerful falsetto and beautiful lyrics are the soundtrack to many romances and his melodies still resonate with our soul. Born and raised in Detroit and known as the "King of Motown," Robinson is responsible for hits such as, "Tears of a Clown," "Tracks of My Tears," "I Second That Emotion," and the Temptations unforgettable hit "My Girl," along with numerous others that made Motown world-famous. After experiencing some struggles later in life, Robinson remains forever inspired by the love of his family, and still awed that the dream he once thought impossible remains the joy of his life over 50 years later.

(P) Sunday, November 8 (8 p.m. – 9 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Robert Duvall

As one of the most acclaimed actors in American history, the incomparable Robert Duvall has acted in over 100 roles. His fierce devotion to his craft in iconic classics such as, "To Kill a Mockingbird," "Apocalypse Now" and "The Godfather," has earned Duvall not only an Academy Award for his work in "Tender Mercies," but recognition as an actor's actor. Revered for his portrayals, Duvall credits his deep belief in authenticity as the driving force that inspires him to bring stories to life, like that of the Southern preacher in his powerful tale "The Apostle." This authenticity and Duvall's personal dedication to live life gracefully while remaining truthful in his work, continues to magnetize audiences and cement Duvall's role as an acting legend.

(P) Sunday, November 15 (8 p.m. – 9 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Dwayne Johnson

His movies have combined for over a billion dollars, and Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson's career continues to thrive with movies like mega-Hollywood blockbuster "The Fast and the Furious" and thriller "San Andreas." But beneath the strong exterior, smile and charismatic persona like that of his wrestling character "The Rock," lies a toughness created when early dreams were dashed and the instability of family life could have threatened his faith. Enticed early by his young, untamed heart, he followed many paths, but through his many roles—from football player to wrestler to actor—has learned to trust his unique voice and personal perspective.

(P) Sunday, November 22 (8 p.m. – 9 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Patti Labelle

Larger than life female vocalist Patti Labelle has electrified audiences over the past five decades. Growing up, she was hesitant about revealing her God-given talent, but as lead singer for the group Labelle, made famous for their unforgettable hit "Lady Marmalade," and later as a solo artist, Labelle has achieved remarkable success in music and on the Broadway stage, fiercely dedicated to performing her best and remaining honest with her fans. And while her achievements may be great, Labelle's career and life are still ruled by her belief to live life for today and remaining ageless.

(P) Sunday, November 29 (8 p.m. – 9 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: James Taylor

James Taylor has sold well over 100 million albums over his four-decade career with classics such as, “How Sweet It Is (To Be Loved By You),” “Sweet Baby James” and “You’ve Got a Friend.” After receiving his break as the first signed artist to the Beatles’ Apple Records, and with influences like Joni Mitchell and Carole King, Taylor has easily earned his place as one of the best songwriters of all time. Taylor speaks openly about working hard to avoid his family’s curse of addiction, and explains his process of tapping into the emotions that sometimes can only be expressed in a song. Today, Taylor has found value sharing his life and living present, notably with his family and soul mate.

SUPERSOUL SUNDAY

Sundays (7 p.m. – 8 p.m. ET/PT *New time)

“SuperSoul Sunday” is the two-time Emmy award-winning series that delivers timely, thought-provoking, eye-opening and inspiring programming designed to help viewers awaken to their best selves and discover a deeper connection to the world around them. The series features all-new conversations between Oprah Winfrey and top thinkers, authors, visionaries and spiritual leaders exploring themes and issues including happiness, personal fulfillment, spirituality, conscious living and what it means to be alive in today’s world.

(P) Sunday, November 1 (7 p.m. – 8 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Bryan Stevenson

Oprah talks to human rights activist and civil rights attorney Bryan Stevenson for a conversation about living your calling, giving a voice to the powerless and how his life changed by meeting people on death row.

(P) Sunday, November 8 (7 p.m. – 8 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Gretchen Rubin

Oprah speaks with happiness expert and New York Times bestselling author Gretchen Rubin about the year she spent devoted to her happiness project, what she learned from her research and how to identify what may lead to a more fulfilling life.

(P) Sunday, November 15 (7 p.m. – 8 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Shonda Rhimes

Oprah is joined by Shonda Rhimes, the prolific showrunner behind hits including “Grey’s Anatomy,” “Scandal” and “How To Get Away With Murder,” about how saying “yes” for one year changed her life and how she recently lost over 100 pounds.

(P) Sunday, November 22 (7 p.m. – 8 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Wintley Phipps

Oprah is joined by Pastor Wintley Phipps, education activist and founder of the U.S. Dream Academy, to discuss how faith and character can help to create a life of value, meaning, purpose and fulfillment.

(P) Sunday, November 29 (7 p.m. – 8 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Zainab Salbi

Oprah talks to women’s rights activist and international humanitarian Zainab Salbi to discuss her dedication to helping women in war-torn regions rebuild their lives, following her calling and what she’s learned about humanity through her advocacy work.

IF LOVING YOU IS WRONG

Tuesdays (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT)

OWN’s popular drama from Tyler Perry takes viewers into the lives of a group of husbands, wives and friends that live and love in the same middle class neighborhood. This season examines what happens when friends and neighbors become the victims of their own lust, anger and misdeeds. The city of Maxine is left reeling as news hits the streets of the birth of Alex's (Amanda Clayton) interracial baby, proof of her adulterous affair with next-door-neighbor Randal (Eltony Williams). Brad's (Aiden Turner) rage over his wife's infidelity, shared by neighbor Marcie's (Heather Hemmens) disgust of her own husband's actions, sets both on the destructive path of revenge. Meanwhile, police officer Lushion (Charles Malik Whitfield) begins to uncover the horrific depth of corruption of his former partner, Eddie (Joel Rush), who is intent on delivering his own brand of street justice, aware that he has angered the Colombian mob who will stop at nothing to have him killed.

(P) Tuesday, November 3 (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Joey and Faun

Faun (Judi Blair) apologizes to Natalie (April Parker-Jones) while Marcie (Heather Hemmens) gets an unexpected ally.

(P) Tuesday, November 10 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: The Tape

Ben (Jordan Wisely) and Eddie (Joel Rush) continue to plot against their enemies.

(P) Tuesday, November 17 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: He's Beautiful

Brad (Aiden Turner) concocts a horrible surprise for Alex (Amanda Clayton).

(P) Tuesday, November 24 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Time For A Cigar

Brad (Aiden Turner) taunts Randal (Eltony Williams) because of his betrayal.

IYANLA: FIX MY LIFE

Saturdays (9 p.m. - 10 p.m. ET/PT)

From pastors leading secret gay lives to a fallen Olympic star to a former model who risked her own health with dangerous butt injections for beauty, spiritual life coach Iyanla Vanzant tackles many thought-provoking issues on the all-new season of OWN's award-winning series "Iyanla: Fix My Life." In eight emotional episodes, Iyanla helps those who are struggling, guiding them toward a new way of living and encouraging them to do the work necessary for real change. Iyanla Vanzant is a bestselling author, spiritual life coach, television host and living testament to the power of acting on faith. Iyanla has lived a unique life filled with personal struggles, which she has overcome and used to do the work in her own life. Through emotional heart-to-heart conversations and often a dose of tough-love, Iyanla helps individuals confront unresolved issues that are causing turmoil. She coaches guests and gives them the tools to fix their own lives, seeking to break the negative patterns that are preventing true happiness.

(F) Saturday, November 7 (9 p.m. – 10 p.m. ET/PT) Episode: Fix My Olympic Fall From Grace

Iyanla helps Olympic figure skater Debi Thomas -- the first African American to win a medal at the Winter Olympics -- who after achieving fame is now living in a bug-infested trailer with her boyfriend, who has admitted to struggling with alcohol.

20 FEET FROM STARDOM

Premieres Sunday, November 22 (9 p.m. – 11 p.m. ET/PT)

Millions know their voices, but no one knows their names. In his compelling documentary film, Academy Award-winning TWENTY FEET FROM STARDOM, director Morgan Neville shines a spotlight on the untold true story of the backup singers behind some of the greatest musical legends of the 21st century. Triumphant and heartbreaking in equal measure, the film is both a tribute to the unsung voices who brought shape and style to popular music and a reflection on the conflicts, sacrifices and rewards of a career spent harmonizing with others. These gifted artists span a range of styles, genres and eras of popular music, but each has a uniquely fascinating and personal story to share of life spent in the shadows of superstardom. Along with rare archival footage and a peerless soundtrack, TWENTY FEET FROM STARDOM boasts intimate interviews with Bruce Springsteen, Stevie Wonder, Mick Jagger and Sting and also features Darlene Love, Judith Hill, Merry Clayton, Claudia Lennear and more. These world-famous figures take a backseat, however, to the diverse array of backup singers whose lives and stories take center stage in the film.
