EXTREME CHEAPSKATES #3 – VICTORIA

Meet Victoria, who refuses to shower at home and lives well under her means. Her boyfriend Steve moves in temporarily as a trial run to see if he can live with her frugal ways, and later she cooks a dinner foraged from the wild for her family.

10:30 PM ET/PT

EXTREME CHEAPSKATES #4 – ROY/BEN

Meet Ben an artist who is creatively frugal. Ben shows off the ways he saves, by not buying toilet paper and planning an art show on a $4 dollar budget. Then, we hit the town with Roy, who admits he takes cheapness to the extreme. He reuses coffee grinds several times, takes advantage of ice cream samples and gets free refills at the movies from leftovers discovered in the trash.

Wednesday, October 24th

ADDICTED #4 – JASON

Jason, 38, is a meth addict of 20 years whose addiction worsened after the sudden death of his father. No longer able to masquerade as a functional addict, Jason is now jobless, acutely in debt and in danger of losing his home in foreclosure. Kristina must intervene before Jason is consumed by the meth he believes he needs to function.

SAY YES TO THE CURE: LORI'S FIGHT

So many stories have been told on the runway of Lori's shop, but this time around, Lori will tell her own. On April 13th, 2012, Lori received news that would change her life forever as her doctor confirmed she had breast cancer. The special is a deeply personal chronicle of Lori's struggle, fight and resolve to beat breast cancer. TLC follows Lori on her journey as she leaves the bridal shop she built, into surgery, and through recovery.
