FAT AND BACK: PART I

Outspoken TV personality, Katie Hopkins has hit the headlines for her controversial views on obesity; insisting that fat people are lazy and claiming that losing weight is easy. Earlier this year Katie hit the headlines again revealing her new 50 lb. heavier figure. Looking to prove her argument, Katie piled on the pounds to experience being weight, before attempting to lose it again by simply eating less and moving more. This two-part special follows Katie through every step of her project, as she struggles to put the weight on and deal with her increasing size, and then as she loses the weight. Will she prove her point or will she have to eat her own words?
