INVESTIGATION DISCOVERY LIFTS THE VEIL ON DOUBLE LIVES AND FATAL FLIRTATIONS IN NEW SEASON OF “WHO THE (BLEEP) DID I MARRY?”
--ID’s Hit Series Returns for an All-New Season Saturday, December 20 at 8/7c--

(Silver Spring, Md.) – It seems like the perfect fairytale for these newlyweds, until one spouse reveals a shocking secret that spins happily ever after into a nightmare. This month, Investigation Discovery (ID) unveils an all-new season of WHO THE (BLEEP) DID I MARRY? with more outrageous tales of flirtations turned fatal, told through first-person accounts. From liars to thieves to cheaters, this series showcases stories of spouses blindsided by their significant others’ shocking double lives and life-altering secrets. Drama comes knocking on season five of WHO THE (BLEEP) DID I MARRY?, premiering Saturday, December 20 at 8/7c on Investigation Discovery.

“‘For better or for worse’ brings on new meaning and a heavy dose of reality when spouses are exposed to real skeletons hidden in their loved one’s closet,” said Henry Schleiff, group president of Investigation Discovery, American Heroes Channel, Destination America, Discovery Fit & Health and Discovery Family Channel. “Satisfying viewers with ID’s signature storytelling style with a twist, WHO THE (BLEEP) has become a quintessential series in ID’s programming lineup.”

In the premiere episode, single mother Krystal Kunkel thinks romance is a thing of the past, until she meets co-worker, Tommy Garcia. It doesn’t take long for the two to fall madly in love and Garcia seamlessly steps into the role of husband and father. But after six years together, Kunkel notices Garcia periodically coming home late and when she finds a gun in his car, her gut says there might be more. Soon she discovers her instinct was dead on when Garcia is suddenly accused of one of the most horrific crimes, ever, leaving her to wonder if her loving family man was really a devil in disguise.

Additional premieres include:
