

TLC'S 7 LITTLE JOHNSTONS Returns For Season 3

All-new episodes begin Tuesday, September 19 at 10/9c

The Johnstons, the world's biggest known little family, are back for a brand new season giving viewers a look into their daily lives as the brood reaches more milestone moments and continues to experience big changes. The new season premieres on Tuesday, September 19 at 10/9c, when the family is gearing up for a big joint birthday party for oldest son Jonah and daughter Elizabeth. Prior to the party, Trent decides to have the dreaded talk with the kids about the "birds and the bees," especially Elizabeth, whose close friend will be attending, and their reactions are priceless. Once again, the whole family must prepare for yet another surgery as Elizabeth finally gets ready to have her postponed leg operation.

Later in the season, Amber tries to lead everyone into a drastically healthier lifestyle, but will the changes be too extreme? Trent and Amber consider getting tattoos, Anna prepares for her driver's license test and Alex and Emma have to learn to ride bikes before entering a big race. The family also faces crude comments while out in public, and must figure out together how to handle the bullying. Finally, Amber and Trent make a big decision that will affect the rest of the family.
