HGTV STARS HILARY FARR AND DAVID VISENTIN ARE BACK IN NEW SEASON OF 'LOVE IT OR LIST IT'

Season Premieres on Monday, January 2, at 9 p.m. ET/PT

New York [For Immediate Release—December 13, 2016] Popular designer Hilary Farr and real estate expert David Visentin star in a new season of top-rated HGTV series Love It or List It, premiering on Monday, January 2, 2017, at 9 p.m. ET/PT. Attracting more than 12 million viewers in its last season, the series features David and Hilary as they help homeowners decide to either love their existing home with stunning renovations by Hilary or to purchase a new home that David finds.

“I know how to capitalize on a home’s existing space and create amazing rooms that homeowners never believed possible,” said Hilary. “I am sure that when I’m done, they are going to love it.”

“When I find the perfect house that has everything a homeowners wants and more, the only thing they are going to be saying about their current house is ‘list it,’” said David.

During the season, David and Hilary will face unique family situations that challenge them creatively and professionally. With expectant parents, essential in-law suites and multiple attic, basement and garage conversions, the pair will share their expertise with homeowners.
