

DAVID BROMSTAD HELPS LOTTERY WINNERS HIT THE REAL ESTATE JACKPOT IN NEW SEASON OF HGTV'S 'MY LOTTERY DREAM HOME'

New York [Jan. 19, 2018] For those who dream of a “no-strings” homebuying budget, a new season of HGTV’s My Lottery Dream Home will grant that wish when it returns on Friday, Feb. 9, at 9 p.m. ET/PT. The series showcases lottery winners who, with help from host David Bromstad, find and buy their first opulent property. The 14 fresh episodes will follow David as he and his instant-millionaire clients tour three spectacular properties to find the family their forever home.

“When it comes to spending a million bucks, I’m your man,” said David. “Six numbers change these winners’ lives forever, and I live for taking them on the search of a lifetime to find their dream home.”

In the season premiere, David visits North Port, Florida, to help lottery winners Tom and Renne choose their perfect new family home. After years of renting, the couple is eager to find a large property that’s perfect for entertaining and gardening. David shows them three gorgeous options, including a customizable model home in a new development; a contemporary house with soaring ceilings and a top-of-the-line kitchen; and a spacious home that boasts a stunning outdoor patio and pool and a large yard for a garden.

“I was able to show Tom and Renne three really fantastic properties that they hadn’t previously considered,” added David. “I loved being part of this amazing journey.”
