DRAB HOME EXTERIORS IN NEW DIY NETWORK SERIES 'LAWN & ORDER'

NEW YORK [April 18, 2018] Popular landscape experts Chris Lambton and Sara Bendrick will add instant value to tired homes that need a dose of gorgeous curb appeal in DIY Network's new series Lawn & Order. Premiering Saturday, May 12, at 8 p.m. ET/PT, the 10-episode season will feature Chris and Sara as they create beautiful designs for lackluster front yards and team up with homeowners to rip out existing lawns. Once the duo adds attractive elements such as fresh landscaping, calming water features and new shutters and garage doors, the value of the properties skyrocket with the promise of top-dollar profit.

"Sometimes you look at the outside of a house and think 'wow, that place needs help,'" said Chris. Added Sara, "It could be the reason a house isn't selling."

In the premiere episode, Chris and Sara help a busy couple overhaul the bland façade and overgrown lawn of their starter home that has been sitting on the market for more than three months. To get the home noticed by potential buyers, the creative team will transform the look of the home with fresh paint, an inviting flagstone walkway and patio with a stone water fountain, as well as new grass and landscaping.
