

DESIGNER AND SOCIAL MEDIA PERSONALITY ORLANDO SORIA HEALS BROKEN HEARTS WITH GORGEOUS HOME RENOVATIONS IN NEW HGTV SERIES 'UNSPOUSE MY HOUSE'

New York [April 23, 2019] Interior designer, social media influencer, author and self-proclaimed breakup expert Orlando Soria knows not all home renos require a happy couple. In HGTV's new series Unspouse My House, premiering Thursday, June 6, at 9:30 p.m. ET/PT, Orlando—who is known for his celebrity clients and passionate fan base on Instagram—works with newly single homeowners to overhaul their homes and heal their lonely hearts with laughter, support and beautiful design. Orlando knows the emotional value of giving clients a fresh start after a breakup, so he helps them indulge in retail therapy to find new furnishings and participate in divorce celebrations with friends.

"I've perfected the art of creating beautiful spaces uniquely tailored to my recently uncoupled clients—and I've also perfected the art of getting dumped," said Orlando. "I show people going through a breakup that interior design can be a great remedy for heartbreak."

Orlando starts each renovation by ridding the home of the exes' lingering possessions, such as fraying furniture, clunky knickknacks and dated décor. He then personalizes the spaces to create dream rooms from open kitchens to master bedroom retreats and spa-like bathrooms. Orlando also delights homeowners with surprise mini-makeovers, including an overhauled master closet or a resurfaced fireplace.

Orlando also will star in an exclusive HGTV celebrity makeover digital series, which spotlights his home renovation for Olympic skier—and his new neighbor—Gus Kenworthy. The six-episode series will be available on the HGTV app, HGTV.com, on demand across all platforms, HGTV's Facebook, HGTV's Instagram and HGTV's YouTube channel this summer.
