WHERE/WHEN: Premieres Saturday, Sept. 18, at 8 p.m. ET/PT on HGTV

WHO: Designer Luke Caldwell, father of eight, and builder Clint Robertson, father of three, know a thing or two about big families who need more space. In the new HGTV series Outgrown, Luke and Clint will put that knowledge to good use by renovating homes for growing families in Boise, Idaho. In each hour-long episode, the duo will seek to understand each family member's unique needs and then work to customize the home to be a perfect fit.

In the premiere episode, a couple and their active young sons feel cramped in their 700-square-foot home, but with all the history in the house and the grandparents next door, moving isn't an option. Luke and Clint step in to break down walls and maximize valuable space so that this family can stay and grow in their beloved home.

Outgrown is produced by High Noon Productions, LLC.
