

TENNESSEE ADVENTURES AWAIT CHRISTINA HALL IN NEW HGTV SERIES
'CHRISTINA IN THE COUNTRY' PREMIERING THURSDAY, JAN. 12, AT 8 PM ET/PT

New York [Nov. 29, 2022] Real estate expert and designer Christina Hall is expanding her design business across the country and putting down roots at her second home, a Tennessee farm, in the new HGTV docu-series Christina in the Country, premiering Thursday, Jan. 12, at 8 p.m. ET/PT. Millions of fans have followed Christina's successful career and active family life in Southern California in her hit series Christina on the Coast, and, now, she'll start her bold next chapter in the Southeast. In each of the six one-hour episodes, Christina will create breathtaking renovations for eager clients and make even more life-long memories with her children and husband Josh Hall in the beautiful middle Tennessee countryside. Christina in the Country also will be available to stream on discovery+ beginning Jan. 12.

"I've fallen in love with Tennessee and it truly has become our home away from home," said Christina. "We're enjoying all the perks of living in the country—the privacy, clean air, nature and clear night sky. And having the opportunity to grow my design business both here and in California is a dream come true."

The series opener will spotlight Christina and her team, which includes fellow designer and project manager James Bender, turning an outdated home into a modern stunner for a very special client, Josh's sister and her husband. As the season continues, she will help couples blend their differing styles and deliver contemporary kitchens, spa-like bathrooms and customized living spaces that meet everyone's needs. When it's time to relax, Christina and her family will explore all the Nashville area has to offer, including horseback riding, line dancing, berry picking and an alpaca farm. They'll also add a special spot to their own property when Josh builds a chicken coop.

Until Christina in the Country airs, fans can watch a new season of Christina on the Coast on Thursdays at 8 p.m. ET/PT beginning Dec. 8 on HGTV and discovery+, as well as binge watch past episodes on the streaming platform.
