

'AUSTRALIA'S THUNDER FROM DOWN UNDER' STARS HEAT UP LAS VEGAS IN NEW HGTV HOME RENOVATION SERIES 'FLIP THE STRIP'

NEW YORK [Feb. 14, 2023] HGTV is bringing the steamy stars of sizzling Las Vegas stage show Australia's Thunder from Down Under to the high-stakes world of home renovation in the new series, Flip the Strip. Headliners by night, dancers Ben Cleary, Dan Paterson, Liam Black and Malik Wills-Martin fill up their days putting their extensive construction experience to use and will work with celebrated interior designer Kelly Stone to help make their clients' home design dreams a reality. The series will include six one-hour episodes premiering on the network in late summer 2023.

"The minute we found out that these guys in Australia's Thunder from Down Under were working as renovators by day, we knew we had to put them on HGTV," said Loren Ruch, Head of Content, HGTV. "These charismatic performers will use their unique combination of home renovation experience and problem solving skills to create stunning spaces for their clients with signature ostentatious Las Vegas flare."

For the latest announcements on Flip The Strip, fans are invited to stay connected across HGTV's digital platforms at HGTV.com and via @HGTV on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and TikTok.

Flip the Strip is produced by Den of Thieves Productions, Inc and Fourward.
