TLC TAPS INTO THE AFTERLIFE WITH “GHOST INTERVENTION”

New Four-Part Series Premieres on December 12 at 9PM ET/PT

(New York, NY) – On the heels of what’s become a national phenomenon with paranormal activity and metaphysical realms, TLC will premiere GHOST INTERVENTION on December 12 at 9PM ET/PT, a four-part docu-series that chronicles a case manager and a team of women with psychic abilities as they try to help different families who are struggling with paranormal activity in their homes.

In each hour-long episode, the women use their psychic abilities to read each of these homes, before they even meet the families who live in them. When the families actually sit down with our paranormal team, they realize that their uncanny talents are exactly what they need in order to finally find the source of psychic conflict and rid their lives of the lingering negative spirits.

Meet the team:

Sierra Campbell: As an intuitive medium, Sierra connects with spirits and allows them to communicate with her through her senses. She has been in the field of mediumship for over 14 years and continues to share her gifts with large audiences and private readings. Sierra is also a published author and producer.

Dawn Clare: A self-proclaimed “Bliss Guide”, Dawn is a clairvoyant medium channeler who sees things related to a person that is more in spiritual and energy form. She is constantly getting messages from those who have passed on, and gives guidance focusing on business/career, health, personal, spirituality and wealth.

Tiffany Johnson: After growing up reading tarot cards to her friends and family and continuing through school honing her talents, Tiffany now assists other people through classes, readings and healings as she taps into New Age Spirituality and deeper studies of holistic therapy. In addition to still conducting tarot card readings and channeling sessions, Tiffany is also an ordained minister.

Raiya Davidson: Raiya acts as the case manager, where she gets historic facts about the building and background information from the families in order to provide the mediums with just the right amount of information to get them on the right track. Through many different encounters with paranormal activity from an early age, Raiya knew she had a special gift.

GHOST INTERVENTION is produced by Craig Piligian's Pilgrim Films and Television
