TLC REVS UP FALL WITH FOUR NEW EPISODES OF *STREET CUSTOMS

West Coast Customs is back in Primetime with All-New Hour-Long Episodes

STREET CUSTOMS, the popular series that chronicles Ryan Friedlinghaus and the rest of the famed West Coast Customs crew as they transform ordinary cars into masterpieces, is back with four new episodes beginning Thursday, October 29 at 10 PM ET/PT. Ryan and West Coast Customs remain at the top of their game, customizing such rare cars as a $350,000 Maybach and a '37 Model A Ford. But cars aren't the only thing on Ryan's mind in the new episodes. With his two clothing and shoe lines, a special project for charity and a visit from a very unique client, there's never a dull moment at WCC.

The season continues with these new creations:

STREET CUSTOMS: EPISODE 213 – Premieres Thursday, October 29, 2009 at 10 PM

When Ryan visits the Vans Headquarters to check out his customs shoe line, he's asked to customize a 1974 Mercedes van. The van's unique see through poly-cast roof proves to be a huge challenge to fabricate, especially when it cracks during assembly.

STREET CUSTOMS: EPISODE 214 – Premieres Thursday, November 5, 2009 at 10 PM

Two members of the San Manuel Native American tribe of Southern California, bring their $350,000 Maybach to West Coast Customs in the hopes that Ryan can add his special WCC touch. Then Ryan is asked to work on a special project by a very unique client.

STREET CUSTOMS: EPISODE 215 – Premieres Thursday, November 12, 2009 at 10 PM

Ryan and his West Coast Customs crew customize an old '37 Model A Ford, going old school turning a clunker into a classic Hot Rod to help promote Ryan and his wife Meagan's new line of clothing, "Wrench."

STREET CUSTOMS: EPISODE 216 – Premieres Thursday, November 19, 2009 at 8 PM

Ryan and his crew give the WCC makeover to a Lamborghini and transform it into the ultimate eye catching speed machine. Ryan learns how to flame a car when a donor of the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles asks him to work on a special project.
