VELOCITY ACCELERATES INTO THE 2013-2014 UPFRONT WITH A FULLY LOADED SLATE OF PROGRAMMING

--Highlighted by the World Premiere Series AMERICARNA, Velocity's 2013–2014 Upfront Slate Features More Than 400 Hours of Premiere Programming, Including 200 Plus Hours of Live Broadcast Content--

(New York) – Velocity, the first network tailored for the upscale male audience, today unveiled its 2013–2014 programming slate at the Discovery Communications Upfront presentation. On the heels of a record-breaking first quarter in 2013, punctuated by the network's best month ever in March, Velocity announced it will continue to deliver a wealth of compelling, high-octane content in the coming year with more than 400 hours of premiere programming including ten returning series and more than 200 live hours. The network fuels its formula with a variety of adventure, automotive, sports and leisure programming—always action-packed and capturing the best of the human experience.

“Last year, Velocity established itself as the definitive network for the upscale male. We’re continuing down this track with a supersized offering of original and live content in the 2013-2014 Upfront season,” said Robert Scanlon, Senior Vice President of Velocity. “The unrivaled knowledge and passion of racing icons Ray Evernham and Patrick Dempsey, and our cadre of trusted experts including Wayne Carini, Chip Foose and Dana Mecum will strengthen the unique connection Velocity has with our target demographic.”

The all-new series AMERICARNA chronicles how American culture and car culture go hand-in-hand. From the dirt road races of 1930s North Carolina bootleggers to the drag strips of Southern California in the 1950s, automotive history has left an indelible imprint on the American experience. Hosted by legendary NASCAR crew chief Ray Evernham, AMERICARNA goes coast-to-coast to lift the hood on legendary four-wheeled history that continues to have a profound impact on our national identity. AMERICARNA will premiere in January 2014.

Another hallmark of the Velocity slate is its robust live offering. Each quarter, viewers will experience the action-packed, high stakes world of auto auctions in real time with MECUM AUTO AUCTIONS, taking place in cities across the U.S. Additional titles featured in the slate include new seasons of highly rated fan favorites WHEELER DEALERS, OVERHAULIN' and CHASING CLASSIC CARS.
